Request for Approval of Credit
Continuing Legal Educational Programs
For Certified Paralegals

Instructions to Seminar Sponsors

Background	Established in 1976, the Certified Paralegal program is a voluntary national certification program available to paralegals and legal assistants. Through this program, paralegals are able to emphasize their dedication to professional growth by seeking admission to the Certified Paralegal program and by successfully completing the Certified paralegal examination. To maintain the CP credential, all Certified Paralegals must submit evidence of completion of at least fifty (50) hours of continuing legal education, including five hours of legal ethics, every five years. To be eligible for credit, continuing education programs must be relevant to the work of paralegals. Certified Paralegals may receive credit for attending seminars in areas Other than substantive law (non-substantive education), up to a maximum credit of 10 hours during any five-year period. Examples of these programs would include seminars on office management, general skills programs on such topics as public speaking, accounting and computer training. This rule is important to sponsors of educational programs as an explanation of why some Certified Paralegals may receive credit for attending a seminar and others may not.
Qualifications	Approved programs must meet the following qualifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Subjects must be relevant to the work of legal assistants/paralegals. Sessions covering such topics as federal or state rules, ethics, substantive areas of the law (e.g., torts, estate planning, family law, etc.) and procedures may qualify, provided the seminar meets other qualifications outlined below. • Each seminar program must be at least fifty minutes in length. • Faculty should include attorneys, paralegals, and/or attorney/paralegal teams. • Seminar programs which require analysis and interpretation of the law by the speakers must feature an attorney as the presenter or one of the presenters. This rule applies to both the presentation of the seminar itself and the analysis and study required to prepare for the session.
ADA	Methods of presentation should meet the specifications of the Americans with Disabilities Act.
Publication of NALA Approval	Once it is determined the seminar program meets the requirements of the Certifying Board for Paralegals, the following language may appear on the seminar brochure and promotional literature: “This seminar meets the requirements of the NALA Certifying Board for Paralegals for continuing legal education credit required to maintain the CP (Certified Paralegal) credential.” This language may be used only by authorization of the Certifying Board for Paralegals. Reproduction of the NALA, CP, or CLA logos is not permitted. Participants will receive credit for all or portions of the program attended, provided the program meets the fifty-minute minimum requirement. If you choose, you may add

	the maximum number of hours that may be available to Certified Paralegals to the above statement. The hours will be provided to you in an acknowledgment by NALA Headquarters. The acknowledgment will also describe whether the seminar has been approved for credit for substantive legal education, non-substantive education, or ethics credit. Please see paragraph 2 under Background for further explanation.
Approval of More Than One Program	Approval is of the individual program, not of the organizations or companies that sponsor the programs. A request form must be submitted and approved for each CLE program before approval may be publicized in seminar promotional materials. If, however, the same program is offered in numerous locations with the same schedule and speakers, approval will extend to the other programs at no additional charge. A Certified Paralegal may receive credit for attending a seminar that has not been approved in advance by NALA through this process, provided the program meets the requirements of the Certifying Board for Paralegals.
Filing the Request for Approval Form	The Request for Approval Form must be filed with a non-refundable application fee of $50 to: NALA Headquarters 7666 E. 61st St., #315 Tulsa, OK 74133 The form may also be sent by FAX to 918-582-6772 or by e-mail to nalanet@nala.org. The fee is waived for NALA Affiliated Associations. See page 1 of the form for fee information.
On-line Calendar Listing Option	The NALA web site offers a calendar of continuing legal education programs. Programs eligible to be included on this directory are programs sponsored by NALA, NALA affiliated associations, and programs that have received pre-approval for CLE credit by the NALA Certifying Board. If your form is submitted in time, and if you wish to include this program on the CLE Calendar, please check the option on the form. There is an additional charge of $50 for this service.
Timing	For your planning purposes, please allow up to three weeks to receive approval. You may submit your application by fax so that the process may begin. However, staff is not able to issue approval before receiving payment.
