NALA BYLAWS 3.30 AND 4.3

A-(3.30) The Corporation may affiliate with duly organized local or state groups or societies, which by objects, aims, constitutions, bylaws or practice are functioning in harmony with the objects and aims of the Corporation, subject to the recommendation of the affiliated associations director and the affirmative vote of the directors.

Election of Affiliated Associations Director

B-(3.30) A majority of the affiliated association representatives present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting of the affiliated associations shall elect the affiliated associations director by ballot for a term of one (1) year. This director shall hold such office for no more than two (2) consecutive terms. Student affiliated associations are ineligible to nominate or vote for this position.

C-(3.30) If the affiliated associations director resigns, the president shall fill the position by appointment. Said appointee must meet the qualifications set forth in this section 3.30, subject to the approval of the directors. Said director shall hold office for the balance of the remaining term and until the next annual meeting of the affiliated associations.

Qualifications of Affiliated Associations Director

D-(3.30) The affiliated associations director must be: (a) an active member of the Corporation and a member in good standing of an affiliated association during the term as affiliated associations director, (b) must have successfully completed the Corporation's CLA examination, and (c) must have maintained current CLA status. If the individual elected is currently serving as an officer of an affiliated association, the individual will voluntarily vacate the office of the affiliated association for the term of the position as affiliated associations director.

Duties of Affiliated Associations Director

E-(3.30) The affiliated associations director shall provide the affiliated associations a formal voice in the management of the Corporation and increase communications among: (a) the affiliated associations and the Corporation, and (b) the affiliates as a group. The affiliated associations director shall submit an affiliates article for each issue of the official publication of the Corporation. The affiliated associations director shall be a member of the directors of the Corporation.

4.3 Qualifications of Directors.

A-(4.3) A director must be: (a) legally competent to enter into contracts, (b) a citizen of the United States of America, (c) an active member of the Corporation, (d) actively employed as a legal assistant, (e) have successfully completed the CLA examination, and (f) have maintained current CLA status.

In addition to the above-referenced qualifications, a Region Director elected pursuant to Article 4.5 of these bylaws must be either a resident of the region for which the Director is elected or must be employed within the region for which the Director is elected.

B-(4.3) Directors of the Corporation will evidence their good faith and fiduciary obligations to the Corporation by executing in the presence of a notary public a non-compete agreement as described in the policies and procedures of the Corporation, which shall be binding upon such director during the director's term of office. If such agreement is not received by the president, secretary and executive director of the Corporation within thirty (30) days of election, or within thirty (30) days of the effective date of these Bylaws, the president shall declare the director's position to be vacant and it shall be filled in accordance with the Bylaws.
